BLOCK INTRODUCTION

Block 3 in the Course MGSE-013 “Gender Training and Empowerment” is titled as “Empowerment and Training- Process” has 4 Units. Unit 9 entitled as “The process of Gender Training and Empowerment” and Unit 10 entitled as “Training and Empowerment – Case Analysis” are written by the experts from the International Development Agency “The Hunger Project”. Unit 9 starts with defining gender training and empowerment. Based on the frameworks of Gender Training and Empowerment, The Hunger Project is providing gender training to the elected women representatives at the grassroots. Unit writer traced the process of gender training by the Hunger Project. Unit 9 and 10 particularly added to make the learners to understand how empowerment and gender training frameworks could be used practically. Unit 10 deals with the Case Studies of Women Panchayat Leaders who have undergone gender training given by the Hunger Project. These case studies are drawn from various States of the Country. Unit 11 analyzed the measurement of empowerment through Case Studies drawn from various countries. The final Unit of the Course 12 is the Government of Karnataka experience. The Government of Karnataka provided training to the women leaders through ICT tools. This process was captured by the Unit writers.
